

Latest insights on Insurance

Featured articles

Related articles

[KPMG Global
IFRS Institute](#)

[KPMG Insurance
homepage](#)

September 2019

In this edition of Latest insights on Insurance, we are pleased to share focal points on the Global Insurance CEO outlook, and what it means to be agile and build resilience in today's market. Also inside, you will find our latest thought leadership on insurance contracts, the pulse of fintech, and the use of Mobility as a Service, and much more.

Once you have reviewed the materials, please get in touch with your KPMG contact or me, as we welcome the opportunity to discuss these topics or any other business ideas or issues with you.

Welcome Mark

I am pleased to let you know that Mark Allitt, Managing Director, will be the Sector Lead for Insurance as of October 1. Many of you know and will have worked with Mark along the way. Please join me in welcoming Mark.

Sincerely,

Mike Morrison
Chief Executive Officer
+1 441 295 5063
mikemorrison@kpmg.bm

Mark Allitt
Incoming Sector Lead, Insurance
+1 441 295 5063
markallitt@kpmg.bm

Featured articles

Global Insurance CEO outlook 2019

Being agile to build resilience. Global Insurance CEOs are confident in business growth over the next 3 years, despite a widespread recognition that they must change from within, embrace culture change, technology transformation and greater customer focus.

Insurance Contracts – New on the horizon

Even with the proposed amendments and deferral to an effective date of 1 January 2022, implementing IFRS 17 remains a huge challenge requiring changes to the data that you gather and your systems, processes and controls.

Partnering with insurtechs to face latest mobility twist

Throughout history humans have been on the move, and they found ways to handle the associated risks. As driverless cars and Mobility as a Service (MaaS) threaten traditional auto insurance, insurers may turn to insurtechs to navigate mobility disruption.

Pulse of Fintech

Both the number of global fintech deals and the total global investment in fintech dropped in H1'19, raising $37.9 billion across 962 deals, driven by the lack of mega deals seen in 2018. That said, the fintech market in most areas of the world remained relatively strong and well poised for growth.

Related articles

2019 Global CEO Outlook

Canadian Financial Services M&A Newsletter

Growth in a G-Zero World

Harvey Nash / KPMG CIO Survey 2019: A Changing Perspective

Product platforms reimaged

Training Curriculum 2019

Virtual assets and related providers – FATF recommendations

Mind the Gap – interviews with women in financial services

Webcasts

IFRS 17 Exposure Draft Feedback and Next Steps

Join us for a webcast on 15 October 2019, where we will summarise the proposed amendments to IFRS 17 and discuss what comments the Board has received on the Exposure Draft. Also on the agenda are the next steps and suggested activities that insurers should consider taking to step up the pace of IFRS implementation as we countdown to 2022.

The Digital Insurer – Global LiveFest 2019

LiveFest is taking place on 21 November 2019 and it is the world's largest online and live festival of digital insurance. It is an opportunity to share knowledge and learn more about the digitisation of the insurance industry. There will be five virtual, fast-paced events which will be held live – all digital on demand. Sign up now.

home.kpmg/bm/insurance

kpmg.bm/socialmedia

kpmg.com/app

Privacy | Legal

Unsubscribe

© 2019 KPMG, a group of Bermuda limited liability companies which are member firms of the KPMG network of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Cooperative ("KPMG International"), a Swiss entity. All rights reserved.

The information contained herein is of a general nature and is not intended to address the circumstances of any particular individual or entity. Although we endeavour to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. No one should act upon such information without appropriate professional advice after a thorough examination of the particular situation.

The views and opinions expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views and opinions of KPMG International or KPMG member firms.

KPMG | Crown House | 4 Par-la-Ville Road | Hamilton HM 08 | Bermuda.