Business Matters

The latest edition of Business Matters is ready for you. It focuses on key topics that are relevant for businesses in Bermuda. This quarter, we cover financing trends in the hospitality industry, how the public can reinvent itself, boardroom questions, and more.

Driving value from genomics from life sciences

Genomics can bring significant benefits to healthcare systems by accelerating clinical research and drug development, personalising treatment regimes, improving patient outcomes, and reducing the cost of care. Genomic data, the most personal of all human data, is part of the overall explosion in health data, enabled by the exponential growth in computing power and the commercialization of wearable technologies.

Growth in a G-Zero world

G-Zero World, or geopolitical recession, is causing a tectonic shift in the global business environment, from reputation management to longer-term business resilience. It is a shift that offers as much opportunity as it does risk. KPMG and Eurasia Group explore how geopolitics is fundamentally changing the rules of the game for business – and how to take advantage of this political turbulence to transform and grow in a G-Zero world.

CEO Outlook – Redefining resilience

The 2019 Global CEO Outlook examines how leaders are creating resilient organisations that have what it takes to grow and thrive in an uncertain and disrupted future. They are shifting the innovation culture, instilling agility, rebooting their management teams, building cyber resilience, transforming the workforce, and accelerating the adoption of advanced technologies.

Family Business Dynamics Assessment Tool

Uncover insights for a successful family business with our Family Business Dynamics Assessment online self-diagnostic tool. Receive a complimentary report which will help you assess your family business across six key areas. It is designed to give you further insight into the capabilities needed to support the goals and objectives of your family business. It also compares your results with other family businesses, both globally and in a similar industry.

Transport Tracker

The global tensions have kept economic growth in a stagnant stage; however, it hasn't stopped companies to continue to be more customer-centric. The trend in transport is moving towards offering door-to-door services by either owning or offering vast parts of the transport chain and network. New platform models are enabling customers to experience a complete journey with one single point of contact in the form of digital freight forwarding or other digital platform models.
