Our Commitment

As our firm experienced the impacts of COVID-19, like our community, we had to adapt to the new realities. While we were not able to hold a number of our traditional events, our commitment to supporting our Bermuda community was unwavering and our expectations were exceeded by the dedication of our people in rising to the challenge.

Additionally, the pandemic reminded all of us about how fragile our world is. Recognising that fragility instills the need to fiercely protect it and it has been a catalyst for taking action. KPMG has responded and, for the first time, has released our global environmental, social and governance (ESG) commitments under one umbrella. The plan clarifies our commitments and actions across four important categories: Planet, People, Prosperity and Governance. We are pleased to share with you a message from Bill Thomas, our global CEO, announcing the launch of KPMG's own Impact Plan. In Bermuda, being a proud corporate citizen is core to who we are. It is our people that bring this to life, driving positive and long-lasting change for our communities. Corporate citizenship flows far deeper than the walls of this office, which was made clear this year, and with our Impact Plan, it will take us into the future.

On a personal note, as many of you know Neil Patterson retired as our Chairman on December 31, after thirty one years with the firm. Neil was very committed to the firm's corporate citizenship activities during his tenure and leaves behind a lasting legacy of KPMG's involvement in our community including, most recently, Ignite Bermuda. I would like to thank him for his leadership and wish him all the best for the future!

Sincerely,

Mike Morrison
CEO
KPMG in Bermuda

A message from the Chair

2020 was a year of transformation and resilience. The way we live and conduct business has shifted dramatically, and as a community and firm we have had to pivot and adapt. Our corporate citizenship role, however, has remained the same; committed to our youth, community and environment, within the lens of global and local priorities. As the pandemic has evolved, these priorities have shifted into one, where global goals and events have local impacts.

Throughout the pandemic we contributed to local efforts to help support the implementation of necessary healthcare structures, and supported charities aiding those impacted by COVID-19, by funding and lending a hand where possible, to help build our community's resilience. This resilience extends to our youth, displayed in their ability to adapt amid a year of uncertainty. Commitment to lifelong learning for our youth, as part of our dedication to the UN's Sustainable Development Goals, is the focal point of our corporate citizenship strategy, which we foster through our educational outreach and the Lift Off Program.

To provide a world in which the developed skills of lifelong learning can thrive, we actively work to reduce our carbon footprint, by decreasing our electricity usage each year and increasing sustainable practices internally. These steps align with KPMG's global strategy to become a net-zero carbon organisation by 2030. Our 10-year journey is just starting, but we're confident that we're making the necessary steps now, to achieve this goal in the future.

Bermuda has weathered many storms, but our people, community and business environment have always pulled together and been resilient in the face of change, ever more the case in 2020. Collaboration is our greatest strength, and when presented with an extraordinary challenge in the form of COVID-19, the island has proven to be able to work together for the betterment of our youth, community and environment.

KPMG in Bermuda is proud to support and contribute to this strength, and we remain continuously committed to our community. I hope you enjoy our report.

Sincerely,

Stephen Woodward

At KPMG - Our impact

Introducing KPMG's environmental, social and governance (ESG) commitments. Holding us accountable for progress so we make an even more positive impact on the world.

A message from

Bill Thomas, Global Chairman and CEO, KPMG International

As a firm, we're driven by our Purpose — to inspire confidence and empower change. And after a year like 2020, our purpose has never been so important.

The world faces existential challenges; confidence is shaken and change is needed. A global pandemic. Protests against racial injustice. Rising unemployment and inequality. Not to mention forest fires, floods and other natural disasters linked to climate change. Solutions to these problems require cooperation, collaboration and a willingness to do what is right across all parts of society, including business.

That's why KPMG is even more determined to make a positive impact on the world. It is our responsibility to help shape and lead on those critical issues facing the world, where our capabilities make a difference. To create inclusive and fair workplace, drive sustainable and purposeful growth for our clients, build trust in and harness the power of the capital markets to spur needed innovations, empower the most disadvantaged in our communities and help preserve our planet so future generations can thrive. So, for the first time, in order to hold ourselves to account for these responsibilities, we've brought together our firm's environmental, social and governance (ESG) commitments under one umbrella: Our Impact Plan.

[Read about
Our Impact](#)

Using our Values as a guide, Our Impact Plan clarifies our commitments and actions across four important categories: Planet, People, Prosperity and Governance. We've approached this plan by reviewing our collective commitments including our carbon footprint, renewable energy usage and inclusiveness.

KPMG's Impact Plan

PLANET

Reducing our impact on the environment to build a more sustainable and resilient future.

PEOPLE

Creating a caring, inclusive and values-led culture for our people.

PROSPERITY

Driving purposeful business practices and good corporate citizenship.

GOVERNANCE

Our Values lie at the heart of the way we do things. To do the right thing, the right way, always.

Over the coming months and years, we will look at how to strengthen our commitment in these areas, and work across all of the KPMG global organization to develop the roadmap to implementation. We will report our progress openly, even where we do not currently have the answer, so we can track our progress. And through the everyday work of our firms, we will focus on building trust and delivering growth with purpose – bringing the best of KPMG to help our clients so all our communities can thrive and prosper.

We recognize that we are not perfect and that more needs to be achieved. But if you can't measure it, you can't hold yourself accountable for changing it. By seeing things as they are today, we can understand the gap that needs to be filled so we can work towards achieving the future we want. That's how we change, why we want to share Our Impact Plan with you, and why I'm personally committed to making sure we do get better.

We're starting to report against the WEF IBC Stakeholder Capitalism Metrics to give our stakeholders a common way of measuring and understanding our year-on-year progress. All of which will help us to achieve sustainable growth with purpose, inspiring confidence and empowering change, reaffirming our long-standing commitment to the UN Global Compact principles, while delivering against the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

KPMG in Bermuda's Impact plan brings together all our ESG related commitments and provides disclosure on a global basis against the World Economic Forum's ESG metrics. We have also been focused on the UN's Sustainable Development Goals, in particular lifelong learning, but so much of what we do applies across the spectrum. Our Corporate Citizenship Report highlights our local impact in Bermuda, and how we are putting the right framework in place to help achieve even more.

Lifelong learning

A strong element of KPMG in Bermuda is our commitment to youth, and this is deeply intertwined with our dedication to contribute to the achievement of the UN's 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDG), with particular focus on SDG 4, 'Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all'. As a member of the global community it is vital that we contribute to global goals and we place our focus on education due to its critical role in alleviating societal issues.

Being strong believers that everyone deserves the right to unlock their full potential through lifelong learning, we support this cause in a multitude of ways: with educational outreach, the KPMG Investment Challenge and our Lift Off Program, helping to launch a variety of careers. These investments in the development of our youth aid in the mission to close the skills gap and create opportunities, a vital step in achieving SDG 4. While education is abundantly important individually, it is also a key enabler of all SDGs, and amid a climate of uncertainty, the ability to empower change for our community through education is inspiring.

At KPMG, this is our commitment and focus.

We align our efforts with local initiatives and activities that benefit our communities and its members. Our corporate giving extends to grassroots charities with a focus on culture, art, and humanities. We are also proud to provide professional services on a full or partial pro-bono basis – which is valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars annually – to charities and not-for-profit organisations.

PLANET

Through our local and global Green initiatives which include: our commitment to becoming a net-zero carbon organisation by 2030, reducing our environmental impact, supporting research and its outcomes through volunteer work, environmental partnerships, and driving initiatives that engage and empower our people, clients, and suppliers.

Through youth-focused development programs, charities and local sports initiatives, including our firm's flagship KPMG Round the Grounds Race. Through our firm's sponsored Wellness Program, participation in many sporting and well-being events, and our ongoing participation and support of Bermuda's key health and support-related charities.

PROSPERITY

Through our Graduate Program, annual KPMG Scholarships, summer internships, the annual KPMG Investment Challenge and our administrative and financial commitment to educational charities.

GOVERNANCE

Our values and our code of conduct guide us in all that we do. We are accountable to each other.

Meet our Corporate Citizenship Committee

KPMG in Bermuda's Corporate Citizenship strategy closely aligns with global and local priorities. It is designed to make a positive impact on the community, providing personal growth and development opportunities for our people while helping define a clear market leadership position when it comes to corporate citizenship.

Simply put, being a good corporate citizen is a part of our corporate culture and what we value as a firm. We know that our team brings the skill, influence and business knowledge to make significant and enduring contributions to the societal issues that are affecting our communities and environments.

At KPMG in Bermuda, we have a dedicated committee that is charged with overseeing our corporate citizenship initiatives. Our firm's mandate is driven by the impact we're making on our community, the engagement of our people, and it's something we are proud to be known for in the market.

The new reality of this year provided students with a unique insight into how international events impact global stock markets. With virtual funds of $100,000 to trade over six months, the teams with the top three highest returns claimed victory, but each school can only claim one of the top three awards. Student Internship Program

PROSPERITY

Each year, KPMG in Bermuda offers a 12-week summer internship to a select group of Bermudian undergraduates, and while we are known for accounting, it's just a part of our internship offering. From marketing and human resources to finance and compliance, we have helped launch a variety of careers. Applications open in December and close in February each year.

Our summer interns also have the chance to participate in rewarding charitable projects by working alongside local, non-profit organisations. Here are some examples of what our 2020 summer interns got up to.

THE WOMEN'S RESOURCE CENTRE

Interns assisted in the creation of a report to detail findings generated from data collection of grocery voucher recipients, updated brochures and created a video to increase awareness of offered services.

MASTERWORKS

Working alongside the Masterworks team with adherence to distancing protocols, interns created a risk assessment document focusing on the potential risks of the premises and art collections.

These projects gave the students unique experiences, where they could put their initiative and creativity to work, with the support of a KPMG mentor system. During the summer, they also had an opportunity to sharpen their presentation skills in a modern way, delivering their findings and recommendations to KPMG's management and employees, as well as the senior executives from the charities in online presentations.

K-Nect

PEOPLE

PROSPERITY

At KPMG in Bermuda, we host K-Nect student events in July and December, as well as a Parent & Teacher K-Nect information session. During these special events, students, parents and teachers alike can learn how we help shape students' interest in business and financial services into an exciting and rewarding career. We also share information about our KPMG Scholarship and summer internship opportunities available through the Lift Off Program.

This year we've gone virtual but the opportunities these sessions present remain the same. Valuable networking opportunities, insights into career paths and internship opportunities are just a few of the things our K-Nect events offer to lift off your career.

Working together extends far deeper than being in physical proximity. We are committed to supporting the community and this year we placed a large focus on contributing to our community's resilience, supporting a variety of COVID-19 related initiatives.

KPMG's ROUND THE GROUNDS RACE

In partnership with the Mid-Atlantic Athletics Club (MAAC), we celebrated the 22nd Anniversary of KPMG's Round the Grounds Running Race at the Botanical Gardens in Paget. This fun family event became even more special, taking place on March 8, 2020, becoming one of the last community events before COVID-19 changed our reality. This is a cheerful afternoon we look forward to every year and we loved seeing over 400 participants, ranging in ages from 4 to 18 running for fun in such a treasured spot on the island.

This year we challenged teens to beat the record and Jasmin Hasselkuss did just that with a time 66 seconds faster than the previous best female runner.

12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

Joining in on the spirit of the holiday season, we participated in a special firm-wide 12 days of Christmas to support the Coalition for the Protection of Children's annual Toys for Tots campaign. With the significant impacts of COVID-19 on families, a variety of items were donated including toys, non-perishable foods, school supplies, clothing, gift cards, books, baby items and sports equipment. Our generous employees made this festive cause a fun team or family event, donating over 300 items.

In lieu of our annual Christmas party, our firm gave employees gift vouchers, with the option to donate the voucher to the Coalition for the Protection of Children instead. We contributed to Warwick Academy's Christmas giving initiative which supports the SalvationArmy, donating bags and reusable cutlery.

PANT(Y) DRIVE

We wear them every day and we always have a clean pair to wear, but that is not always the case for those less fortunate in our community. This year our firm's Corporate Citizenship Committee commenced a firm-wide pant(y) drive initiative, asking staff to donate new underwear and other gently used clothing items. This initiative was in support of Christ Church's community outreach program where they provide weekly facilities for laundry, showering and a change of clothes, if needed. With the help of our generous staff we donated over 225 pairs of underwear, 10 bags of clothing and $550 to purchase additional underwear and personal grooming supplies.

Relay for Life — Team KPMG

PROSPERITY

The mission of Relay for Life of Bermuda is to raise awareness and funds to enable access to cancer prevention, early detection, treatment and support provided by Bermuda Cancer and Health Centre. The 24-hour walk/run-a-thon was held May 15-16, 2020, virtually, and while the location differed, our team spirit only increased. Supporting this global initiative locally is something we are always up for.

Unfortunately, our normal donation goal was unattainable due to cancellation of our largest fundraising events, but we were still motivated to support this fantastic cause. We took a modern spin on fundraising initiatives where FUNdraising activities included virtual quiz nights and wine tastings, the KPMG push up challenge, bake sales and individual fundraising. This event is continuously a firm-wide effort with over 56 volunteers, along with colleagues who donate their time, money and show their support on the day of.

Thanks to the enthusiasm and generosity of our employees, we raised $4,949.

MOvember — Team KPMG

During November, moustaches can be found growing on the men of KPMG as part of MOvember Bermuda.

Our firm’s MoBros demonstrated their creativity and various abilities when it comes to growing facial hair with our MoSistas supporting them along the way in a mission to contribute to changing the face of men’s health. The unique challenges of this year “mo”tivated our team to think of innovative fundraising ideas, including a companywide raffle and an internal happy hour where staff donated, and awareness was promoted.

A big thank you to all our MoBros that got a little hairy for a great cause and their MoSistas, who came together and successfully raised $6,475 for the Bermuda Cancer and Health Centre – winning the financial challenge trophy, with our very own Will Green taking the title of the Ultimate Mo.

Ignite Bermuda

A new business often begins from a spark of an idea, and KPMG in Bermuda helps to foster an environment where it can ignite. Ignite Bermuda is the island's first privately funded entrepreneurial accelerator, co-founded by KPMG and New Venture Holdings, in partnership with Entrepreneurial Spark, the largest operator of such hubs in the UK.

Entrepreneurial activities are a key facet of a successful economy but starting, and then growing a small business is never easy, especially in the limiting state of the economy. There are many uncertainties involved between each level of growth and these were exacerbated this year but as a result, Ignite's support network of peers, mentors and advisors became that much more important, navigating all of these stages together. In the face of a new reality, this year's cohort saw amazing entrepreneurial resilience and economic contribution.

Ignite has now completed its second year, seeing two cohorts through and winning a Best of Bermuda Award for Best Good Corporate Citizen with over 137 individuals having been directly supported. The accelerator has brought together a variety of different people, ranging from companies providing financial support, professionals eager to mentor and coach, and the entrepreneurs themselves; creating an entrepreneurial community. This community works in close collaboration with the Bermuda Economic Development Corporation, aiding in the utilisation of existing programs and infrastructure.

KNOW YOUR NUMBERS WEBINAR

In the wake of COVID-19, non-profits which support those vulnerable in our community, have been struggling more than ever before. In collaboration with Wavecrest, a consulting company which advises nonprofits on how to most effectively and ethically raise funds to support their missions, KPMG hosted a webinar titled 'Know Your Numbers'.

The webinar focused on how to evaluate an organisation's cash flow to best position themselves to survive in the pandemic. Our people generously offered their time to provide advice and practical steps on how to limit expenses and project cashflow, providing a spreadsheet to aid in this analysis.

Charity Walks/Runs

PEOPLE

As part of the initiatives led by our firm’s Wellness Committee, our employees get involved in many of Bermuda’s sponsored walks and runs to raise funds for local charities. The events took a twist this year, where people individually completed them with a finish line at their own yard. Given the new reality of 2020 it was even more important our staff took the time to enjoy the natural beauty unique to the island. During the year, KPMG in Bermuda supported our team members in the following activities:

- AON National Sprint Triathlon
- AXA Man on the Run 5K (benefits Bermuda Cancer & Health Centre Radiation Therapy and other local Men’s Health initiatives)

OUR PEOPLE

Live well, be well

OUR WELLNESS COMMITTEE

Our firm’s Wellness Committee’s main focus in 2020 was to increase connection and improve mental wellbeing during times of isolation, brought about by COVID-19. As we transitioned to work from home, webinars from Benedict Associates on handling life during lockdown were offered and staff were encouraged to get active through virtual beyond fitness classes and weekly competitions. These friendly competitions challenged staff to show pictures and videos of their favourite lockdown activity, best socially distanced walks and more.

Mental wellbeing is always kept top of mind at our firm. During busy season the Committee sponsored a number of activities to keep our people healthy and happy, including yoga classes and providing healthy snacks on Wellness Wednesdays to keep everyone’s energy up. A Lunch & Learn session was also held where staff heard from a local chiropractor on spinal health and healthy habits.

The KPMG Wellness Committee’s goal is to improve employee health and well-being. We achieve this by providing a platform for employees to be more aware, motivated and skilled when making decisions to increase their own and others’ wellbeing. With the unprecedented challenges brought by COVID-19, we adapted our range of initiatives to ensure our people had the support and guidance they needed to adapt to the new environment. Our employees’ wellness is at the heart of everything we do.

We aim to deliver growth with purpose, having a real and positive impact towards a resilient future so all our communities can thrive.

THE BERMUDA OCEAN PROSPERITY PROGRAM (BOPP)

As part of KPMG's commitment to serving our community and accelerating environmental sustainability, two members of our management team have volunteered their assistance to support the early stages of the Bermuda Ocean Prosperity Programme (BOPP). BOPP is a partnership between the Government of Bermuda, the Waitt Institute, and Bermuda Institute of Ocean Sciences (BIOS). BOPP's goals include creating protected marine areas and sustainably developing Bermuda's blue economy. The World Bank defines 'blue economy' as the sustainable use of ocean resources for economic growth, improved livelihoods and jobs, and ocean ecosystem health.

Bermuda is home to the northernmost coral reef system in the world which is considered to be one of the healthiest in the Atlantic Ocean. KPMG believes that through ensuring the long-term sustainability of Bermuda's ocean eco-system and creating enablers to encourage sustainable use of our ocean waters, Bermuda has an opportunity to grow and diversify the economy to the benefit of everyone.

Our Green Committee

PLANET

It's through the Green Committee that we provide ongoing awareness to our colleagues and keep the environment top of mind. Our Committee and employees took part in the following areas.

REDUCE

During work from home our Green Committee challenged staff to get some fresh air for a good cause. This green challenge encouraged staff to take a walk and pick up trash along the way.

REUSE

Collection boxes were placed in the kitchens on each floor prompting staff to place their plastic take out containers in them so they could be reused.

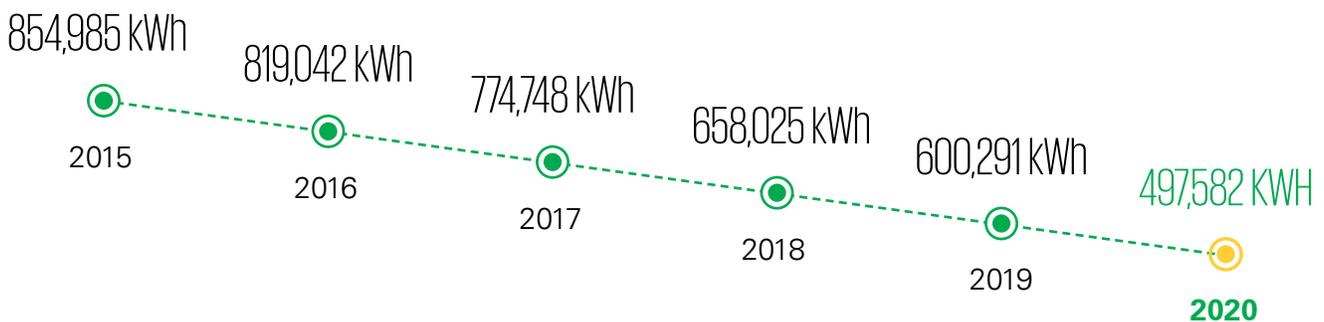

RECYCLE

Buckets were placed in the kitchens on each floor for coffee grinds which staff were encouraged to take home for gardening.

The large work from home component of this year lead to a major reduction in our firm's overall electricity usage. As we return back to the office, we're confident that with our focus, we can keep up the good work, hopeful to reach this number again in the years ahead.

KPMG in Bermuda are dedicated to reducing our carbon footprint and raising green awareness among our colleagues so together we can effect change for better.

Inclusion & Diversity Committee

Our firm’s Inclusion & Diversity Committee, separated into three sub committees which are focused on Events, Human Resources and Education, achieved a lot this year as inclusion and diversity continue to be a major focus of the firm.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

In the wake of the Black Lives Matter movement, various marches were held globally to condemn racism and discrimination. On June 7, thousands of people joined together to support the movement in Bermuda where we had firm wide participation. At KPMG in Bermuda we treat all people respectfully and inclusively, celebrating our differences.

INCLUSIVE LEADERSHIP TRAINING

In collaboration with our firm’s Learning & Development team, we provided three training sessions on Inclusive Leadership: Inclusion and Diversity in Performance Management. The target audience was performance managers, with the objective of providing tools and strategies to identify and interrupt unconscious bias in year-end performance meetings.

KPMG SOCIAL SERIES

In July we held four different gatherings, both virtual and in person, to connect people from all of our service lines, enabling employees to meet and chat with new faces they don’t work with on a daily basis.

WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY

As we navigated challenging times, mental wellbeing was an important topic for our firm and it is crucial we have open conversations around mental health and how it impacts us. Our firm participated in the virtual KPMG World Mental Health Day Summit, raising awareness and ending stigmas around mental health through learning sessions and personal stories.

INTERNATIONAL MEN’S DAY

In alignment with MOverner, our firm joined the conversation on better health for men and boys during International Men’s Day 2020. We held a panel with three of our Managing Directors and discussed two of the themes for 2020:

- (1) Making a positive difference to the wellbeing and lives of men and boys
- (2) Promoting a positive conversation about men, manhood and masculinity.

This included a discussion on how our Managing Directors are supporting and creating an inclusive workplace.

Our focus has been on inclusion – how to do we continue to create an inclusive environment for all of our people? The I&D committee has had a strong first year and worked closely with the Wellness and Corporate Citizenship Committees to stay active and relevant during our time in lock down and working from home.

International Women's Day

PEOPLE

An equal world is an enabled world, and that is what we kept in mind during our 2020 International Women's Day celebrations. Leading up to the day, our firm hosted a fireside chat with the Institute of Directors and encouraged staff to participate in our #EachforEqual pledge wall. On the day of, we held a purple charity day, commencing with special purple breakfast baskets, and concluded the day with an internal panel discussion on inclusion and diversity. We had the pleasure of welcoming Kim Perdikou of REBBL beverages, who was interviewed by our Lori Rockhead. All the funds raised from these activities were donated to the Women's Resource Centre.

EMPLOYEE WELLNESS PROGRAM

Our employee wellness program is designed to support and enhance the overall health and well-being of our people. This includes a variety of activities like in-house health and wellness lunch and learn sessions, firm-sponsored entry fees for sporting activities, and specially negotiated corporate rates for local health/fitness club memberships. Our program also extends to our people feeling safe in their working environment during the day, and by having a security presence after regular business hours to accompany employees to their vehicles should they wish to use this service.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

In addition to our firm's health insurance program, our employees have access to complimentary and confidential personal counselling services. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is available to KPMG employees and their families and is provided by a local and independent counselling organisation. The EAP is financed fully by the firm and offers a wide range of services to assist with personal or work-related problems that may impact their job performance, health, or emotional well-being.

RETURN TO OFFICE

This was a year of transitions as we moved from office, to work from home, and now begin to phase back to office. Our employees' wellbeing is our top priority, so there was a strong importance to find the correct approach during all these stages. With a phased approach where our employees have one week in office and one week at home, with cautious safety protocols in office where masks are mandatory and desks are distanced, we have had a successful transition back.
