J.D.G. Douglas.
E. Ferreira for Trustee
B. Ensey

The motion was not opposed.
The facts are summarized in the comprehensive ~~and~~ submitted by Mr Douglas. The legal analysis supports the requested relief.

It is clear that the symmetry role played by CIPF assisted the trustee in achieving the to result that is described in the plan.

In my view the payment of the CIPF Top-Up Claim is appropriate in the circumstances.

The Justice reports that no adverse comment has been received to the Ninth Report and to the Fourth Report of Budget Cost Council. Both Reports are approved, together with the activities described.

I also note that the Superintendent of Budgets has been agreed with the materials. The Justice takes the position that the payment of the CIPF Top-Up Claim is not the type of payment that attracts the levy payable to the Liquidator.

I assume that the Liquidator does not take a <sup>contrary</sup> ~~different~~ view.
In these circumstances, I am satisfied that the levy is not payable on the payment of ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup>

CIPF Top-Up Claim.

CIPF's counsel also advised that 5% interest has been paid by the Trustee on all claims in the bankruptcy. The payment is <sup>is</sup> in accordance with the provisions of the BIA.

I am also satisfied that the fee request of the Trustee,
