Motion today involves a dispute over a further interim distribution. Resps oppose the proposed distribution of KPMG.

I am prepared to allow the further proposed distribution. KPMG advises that it has reserved 75% of SAMM's disputed claim value and will reserve a further 5% of SAMM's disputed claim value upon making this further interim distribution.

In these circumstances I see no mischief in ~~not~~ making the distribution as proposed and it shall be made.

No costs are sought and the order shall go as per the draft filed + signed which has been approved by Counsel.
