Dear Sir / Madam,

We present to you the thirty third edition of our Software Licensing Bulletin, which provides key insights on IBM® Skill Starter Pack

What is IBM® Skill Starter Pack?

The IBM Skill Starter Pack provides new business partners with the tools and benefits to accelerate their time to value and growth with IBM. The IBM Skill Starter Pack consists of a certification test voucher that may be used for up to two tests at Pearson VUE testing facility and Bluemix service credits.

Terms Of Use:

- To join IBM Skill Starter Pack, Business Partners must meet eligibility criteria and activate the pack within one month of joining PartnerWorld, or forfeit the pack’s benefit.
- Activation is defined as having been accepted as eligible for the IBM Skill Starter Pack by IBM.
- In order to use the benefits of IBM Skill Starter Pack, Business Partners must begin to use the pack within six months of activation or the benefits will be de-activated. If benefits are used within the first six months, the business partner may continue to use the IBM Skill Starter Pack benefits for twelve months from activation.
- It is available to all new qualified Business Partner firms that joins the PartnerWorld programme on or after January 1, 2017.

We hope the bulletin was informative. We would be happy to arrange for any additional information that you may require on the subject. Please write to us at in-fmkpmgccsbulletin@kpmg.com for any queries or feedback.
