Crisis management - COVID-19

COVID-19 is, first and foremost, a humanitarian challenge. It has affected communities on multiple continents, with significant number of deaths and cases being reported. In addition to the humanitarian challenge, there are implications for the wider economy, business and employment.

Why is this crisis an immediate impact on the economy?

1. Loss of life
2. Global pandemic
3. Global recession
4. Demand shock
5. Trade tensions
6. Supply chain disruptions

Key concern areas for all employers

- Employee protection and awareness
- Outbreak management
- Business continuity
- Financial stress
- Revenue protection
- Optimisation of sourcing and supply chain alternatives

How can we help you?

- Designing guidelines for employee protection and awareness
- Financial stress testing and identifying variables impacting cost and revenue
- Assistance in setting-up an outsourced COVID-19 helpline for your workforce
- Redesigning operations for protecting revenues and retaining customers
- Defining long and short term measures to ensure business continuity
- Identifying, and activating, alternate sourcing and supply chain operations

For details contact:
Amit Kumar
Partner, Transformation
+91-9820002758
amitk4@kpmg.com

Merli Cherian
Partner, IT Advisory
+91-9900525082
mcherian@kpmg.com

Bijal Shah
Director, Risk Advisory
+91-9892129187
bvshah@kpmg.com

Devang Shah
Director, Transformation
+91-9920895544
devangshah2@kpmg.com

Follow us on:
home.kpmg/in/socialmedia

© 2020 KPMG, an Indian Registered Partnership and a member firm of the KPMG network of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Cooperative (“KPMG International”), a Swiss entity. All rights reserved. The KPMG name and logo are registered trademarks or trademarks of KPMG International. This document is for communication only.