KPMG Views

The below table compares NPF payable by employers and employees in August 2020 with CSG payable by employers and employees in September 2020:

Basic Salary (MUR)	NPF (MUR)		CSG (MUR)
	Employee Contribution	Employer Contribution	Employee Contribution	Employer Contribution
30,000	597	1,194	450	900
39,800	597	1,194	597	1,194
50,000	597	1,194	750	1,500
100,000	597	1,194	3,000	6,000
200,000	597	1,194	6,000	12,000

— Employer's contribution will reduce in respect of employees earning salaries below MUR39,800;
— However, employer's cost will increase significantly with respect to employees earning salaries above MUR39,800 as there is no cap under CSG, unlike NPF.

We believe additional guidance should be provided by the MRA on the following:

- There is no clear indication what constitutes the additional remuneration payable;
- Whether discretionary bonus should be excluded from remuneration;
- With few exceptions, non-citizens who are employees in Mauritius are subject to CSG contributions. It is unclear whether the non-citizens will be entitled to CSG refunds when leaving Mauritius;
- The benefits available on retirement to the employees contributing to CSG.
