

Dealing with tax disputes can mean uncertainty and complexity. Tax authorities worldwide are under pressure to generate revenue, causing a rise in tax audit and investigation activities across all taxing jurisdictions and all types of tax. This pressure on tax authorities is resulting in larger tax adjustments and increased potential penalties.

KPMG's Tax Dispute Resolution practice helps companies and high-net-worth individuals protect against, prepare for, and respond to challenges by the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia ("IRBM"). Our professionals are experienced in all stages of the tax dispute continuum – from pre-transaction analysis and documentation to closing the file on items in dispute.

KPMG can assist in achieving certainty on disputed tax issues quickly and efficiently and in a way that can help build an effective and respectful relationship with the IRBM.
