Statement of Prior Professional Relationships

The proposed administrators, James Robert Tucker, Richard Heis and Allan Watson Graham, have had a prior relationship with the company only by extension of KPMG's relationship as set out below

The proposed administrators have identified the following relationships which KPMG LLP has had with the Companies in the last three years;

- Since October 2009 KPMG LLP has provided advice to the banking syndicate to which the Companies are parties. This has taken the form of bank options advice and contingency planning. Fees are approximately £150,000.
- Between May 2007 and October 2009 KPMG LLP provided indirect tax advisory services to the value of approximately £650,000. The services included advising on processes, procedures and controls in relation to import and export issues including country specific advice in the UK, US, El Salvador, Mexico and Switzerland. Of the £650,000 contract approximately £350,000 has been paid, with £300,000 remaining either unpaid or unbilled.
- In April 2008 KPMG LLP was engaged to provide confirmation, clarification and guidance on the application of generally accepted accounting principles in relation to inventory and business combination accounting. The scope of the engagement was illustrative, with no reference to specific transactions. Any specific advice relevant to specific transactions was to follow by separate instruction if required. No such further instruction was received. Fees earned in relation to this work were approximately £3,000.
