Dominican Government postpones Energy Tender

Due to municipal elections, as well as the upcoming presidential elections in May, the Dominican Corporation of State Electric Companies ("CDEEE" for its acronym in Spanish) postponed the international energy tender, which was set out to be launched in February, for an undetermined future date.

In this sense, the auction was aimed to engage the entities who would be in charge of the installation of two (2) new combined-cycle natural gas power plants, with a maximum capacity of 1000 MW.

Accordingly, by means of this decision, the CDEEE would postpone the construction of the following projects:
